FOREWORD

In offering this volume to the notice of the learned world, a few words might appropriately be added giving a short account of the origin and growth of the Government collections of manuscripts (mostly Sanskrit), which are at present deposited at the Deccan College, Poona; of their preservation and present condition; and their future prospects.

2. The origin of the idea of collecting manuscripts on behalf of Government and printing their lists or catalogues goes back to the late sixties of the last century. There was however much work done, in the way of collecting manuscripts, before Government appeared in the field in 1868; but that was done almost exclusively by private individuals, and it is interesting to note that their activities had begun very early, and can be traced back to the last quarter of the 18th century. By a curious coincidence, the time when manuscripts began to be sought after by outsiders synchronises with the period when the consideration of Indian affairs began to form an important part in public discussions in England; and while Burke was advocating the cause of India in the House of Commons we find one of his friends, Sir R. Chambers, assiduously applying himself in India to build a vast library of Sanskrit manuscripts. The history of such attempts, however, cannot, in this place, be entered into with details, but a few facts might be mentioned which prove that the work thus undertaken by private efforts goes back to the time when Sanskrit literature was first made known to scholars outside India.

3. If the history of Sanskrit literature as studied by European scholars may be said to begin with the appearance of Sir William Jones' Śâkuntala in English translation in the year 1789, the history of the search for Sanskrit manuscripts will have to be pushed back by at least a dozen years; because, such distinguished persons as Sir Robert Chambers had set themselves to make a collection of Oriental and especially Sanskrit manuscripts, so early as 1774. In the "Vorrede" prefixed to the first part of the catalogue of Sanskrit manuscripts belonging to the Imperial Library at Berlin, prepared by Dr. Weber and published in 1853, a detailed account is given of how Sir Robert Chambers formed his collection of manuscripts. Sir Robert Chambers, a distinguished scholar of "great and versatile culture" versed in "old and new learning," a friend of Sir William Jones and Burke, who, finally, became one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the East India Company and was for some time President of the Asiatic Society of Bengal, collected between 1774 and 1779, a library of Indian books of the highest importance. On account of his eager and exclusive pursuit of the knowledge of (Indian) Law, he succeeded at a cost of 25,000 sterling—so we are told—in forming a vast and unique collection of Sanskrit manuscripts, comprising valuable and important works in all branches of Vedic and subsequent Indian literature. Other details of this collection need not detain us here, except the fact that Sir Robert Chambers obtained a set of Sâma-veda manuscripts for his collection from one Mahomedan gentleman of the name of Ali Ibrahim Khan, and that, after protracted negotiations opened on behalf of the Prussian Government by Wilhelm von Humboldt in 1828, this fine collection of manuscripts came to be purchased by that Government in 1842 and subsequently deposited in the Imperial Library of Berlin.

4. Another equally important collection of manuscripts was made in Southern India soon after this. In this case, however, Government aid was available, though mainly in the way of supplementing private efforts for securing manuscripts and other Orientalia. Mr. (afterwards Colonel) Mackenzie landed in India in 1782, being appointed Cadet of Engineers on the Madras Establishment. Before he came to India, he had been led to undertake investigations into the knowledge of Mathematics and of Logarithms possessed by the Indians. From 1796 to 1806, he was employed in the investigation of the Geography of the Deccan, and in mapping the country; later, he became Surveyor General of Madras, and finally, Surveyor General of India; and it was in the former two capacities that he collected valuable manuscripts, inscriptions, plans, maps and other antiquarian material. The expenses incurred by that gentleman in this undertaking are vouched on reliable authority to have amounted to upwards £15,000. The whole collection was subsequently purchased by the East India Company for £10,000 ; and was catalogued in 1828, on the recommendation of the Government of India, by H. H. Wilson. The collection is said to comprise 8,000 manuscripts, and was for a time deposited in the Government Oriental Manuscripts Library of Madras.—Other similar attempts at collecting manuscripts are those of Sir William Jones, H. H. Wilson and Thomas Colebrooke. Their acquisitions now form part of the India Office Library, and of the Bodleian and other Libraries in England.

5. With the growing recognition of the importance of the study of Sanskrit, with the continued insistence of European and other scholars on better facilities being afforded to them for its cultivation, and with the publication in Europe, about this time, of some of the best catalogues of Sanskrit manuscripts found in India, it was natural that the Indian Government should feel the necessity of helping the cause of Sanskrit literature more systematically and more energetically. In those days the main direction in which this help was most required was in making the existence of manuscripts and works widely known to Oriental scholars. Government had already taken a step in the matter, as is to be inferred from a letter addressed to the Viceroy and Governor General of India, on the 10th of May 1868, by Pandit Radhakrishna of Lahore, who, it seems, was previously the chief Pandit of the Lahore Durbar during the Sikh Rule of the Punjab. This, as well as other important official documents bearing upon the question, will be found amongst the " Papers relating to the collection and preservation of the records of ancient Sanskrit literature in India " edited, by order of the Government of India, by A. E. Gough, Calcutta, in 1878. From these papers, it is evident that the Government of India had already decided independently, while proceeding with the reorganisation of India after the troubled period of the Indian Mutiny, to assume an attitude of benevolent patronage towards the resuscitation of the ancient classical languages and literatures of India, being inspired no less by the intrinsic worth of those literatures than by purely utilitarian and political motives. In his letter Pandit Radhakrishna, while complimenting the Government of India on the orders they had issued "for collecting the catalogues of Sanskrit, Arabic and Persian books in existence in many parts of India," urged on their notice the desirability of compiling a catalogue "of all the Sanskrit manuscripts preserved in the libraries of India and Europe." This suggestion of his was readily taken up by the Government of India, who, after a deliberation of a few months, issued an order No. 4338-48, dated Simla, 3rd of November 1868, conveying a general approval of a scheme for collecting and cataloguing manuscripts drawn by Mr. Stokes, the Secretary of the Legislative Council, and allotting for that purpose an annual sum of Rs. 24,000 for the whole of India. From this grant the presidency of Bombay was to have a sum of Rs. 3,200. Mr. Stokes, while agreeing generally with the scheme of cataloguing, was strongly of opinion that a catalogue of the kind suggested could only be satisfactorily produced in England; as he knew of "no native scholar possessed of the requisite learning, accuracy and persistent energy," and of "no European scholar in India possessed of the requisite time, or who might not be more usefully employed in making original researches." Taking for granted, therefore, the ultimate aim of the scheme to be despatching to Europe all the lists of manuscripts prepared, to be consolidated there, by a European scholar, into one comprehensive catalogue on the model of Aufrecht's Bodleian catalogue, he laid down, as steps leading to the desired end, the intermediate stages of (1) printing uniformly all procurable unprinted lists of the Sanskrit manuscripts in Indian libraries, (2) instituting searches for manuscripts with a view to get an idea of the situation, extent and nature of the manuscripts, (3) copying the unaccessible amongst them, and (4) more liberally aiding the Asiatic Society of Calcutta for the publication of their Bibliotheca Indica. It was this scheme of Mr. Stokes that was adopted by the Government of India who, in their final order above referred to, made a fairly adequate provision also for the purchase of manuscripts. Particular reference is here made to the proposal to send away the prepared lists of manuscripts (and evidently the manuscripts also) to England for being properly and satisfactorily catalogued; because, as will be seen later, this proposal, so far as Bombay at least was concerned held the field for a very long period and certainly affected very adversely the production of a descriptive catalogue of manuscripts bought on this side of the country for the Government by their able and enthusiastic workers in this field. But more on this point presently.

6. With the grant thus placed at the disposal of the Government of Bombay, the latter, on the 10th of December 1868, requested Dr. Kielhorn and Dr. Bühler to undertake the search, the former to explore the Southern, and the latter the Northern part of the Presidency. As representing however an earlier attempt made by the Government of Bombay in this particular direction and testifying to their enlightened and progressive views, it is a pleasing duty to be able to say that even before this, they had already taken the initiative in the matter of the search and the preservation of manuscripts by placing at the disposal of Dr. Bühler a decent sum of money, on the 1st of November 1866, directing it to be expended by him in getting copies of important manuscripts made, or in buying old ones when available, the field of his activity being Southern Maratha Country and North Canara. The Bombay Government thus seem to have generously come forward in the cause of ancient Sanskrit manuscripts in response to the wishes of two of the earliest, and also most distinguished, Sanskritists on this side of India at the time, namely, Dr. Martin Haug and Dr. Bühler. The manuscripts collected by the former are now in the library of the University of Bombay; those collected by the latter—about 200, and mostly consisting of copies—were till now deposited in the library of the Elphinstone College, Bombay, but have recently been transferred to the manuscripts library at the Deccan College. It need scarcely be added that the manuscripts of these two collections thus represent the earliest acquisitions made by the Government of Bombay before 1868, the year of the launching of the new policy of the Government of India

7. Taking up now the history of the search under this new arrangement, so far as the Presidency of Bombay is concerned, it falls into three well defined periods: the first period beginning from 1868 comes down to well nigh the end of 1881, when the search was in the joint charge of Dr. Bühler and Dr. Kielhorn; the second period is the one represented by the activities of Sir Dr. R. G. Bhandarkar and Dr. Peterson (from 1882 to 1895), with just a brief period of a few months preceding 1882, when Dr. Bhandarkar alone was put in sole charge of the search; and the third period covers all subsequent work down to the date of writing. This last period represents the acquisitions of manuscripts made by Professor Kathavate (from 1895 to 1902), by Professor S. R. Bhandarkar (from 1900 to 1915), by Professor K. B. Pathak (from 1902 to 1907), and lastly by Professor V. S. Ghate (from 1907 to 1915). This last group has not as yet been officially reported upon, nor, for matter of that, even catalogued, and will have to be properly treated in the near future.

8. Our collection of 1868-69 is thus the first fruit of the joint labours of Dr. Bühler and Dr. Kielhorn. The collection as such compares unfavourably, both in extent and importance, with some of the later collections made either by these two pioneers in the field, or by their successors; but even after a few months of investigation the Director of Public Instruction was able to report to the Government of Bombay that the success of the scheme "had been marked and important" and that the reports submitted by Dr. Bühler and Dr. Kielhorn were in many respects "curious and interesting." The work of acquiring manuscripts went on from year to year, and the results of their labours were embodied in annual lists and reports published by them from time to time, and the curious reader may, if he likes, refer to them in Mr. Gough's publication alluded to above.

9. The manuscripts which Dr. Bühler and Dr. Kielhorn thus acquired for the Government of Bombay within a period of nearly fourteen years are shown in the "catalogue of collections of manuscripts deposited in the Deccan College from 1868 to 1884" compiled by Professor S. R. Bhandarkar and published in 1888. One or two points may be briefly mentioned as relating to this period. The labours of Dr. Bühler and Dr. Kielhorn were at first confined to the territorial limits of the Presidency, the former working the Southern, and the latter, the Northern parts. But General Cunningham, the then Director General of Archæology, urged the advisability of having their exertions extended beyond the limits of the Presidency proper and of including Jesalmir and Bikaner in the programme of their tours. As a result of this suggestion Dr. Bühler visited in 1873-74 Rajputana, Lahore, Delhi, Benares, and other places of Northern and Eastern India, in addition to Gujarat. Then was soon to follow (1875-76) his famous visit to Kashmere, Jeypur and Ujjain, the result of which event was nothing short of (in the words of Aufrecht) bringing to light "whole branches of literature, till then scarcely known." This achievement of Dr. Bühler was possible not simply because he happened to come so very early in the cause of the search of Sanskrit manuscripts, but also because the field he investigated was intrinsically so very valuable.—It may be noted in passing that even now a similar field with no less an intrinsic value, and perhaps calculated to throw a greater light on the history of early India, exists in Java and other neighbouring islands, where colonies from India had been established in quite early times. Opportunities permitting, it is intended to make a definite move in the matter at no distant date.—The "Detailed Report" of Dr. Bühler's tour has become almost a classic with Sanskritists, and has served as model for subsequent work in the field of the recovery of Sanskrit manuscripts and the presentation of the results in proper light.

10. The total number of manuscripts collected by Dr. Bühler and Dr. Kielhorn up to the end of 1881 were 3,118. To this might be added a collection of 970 manuscripts, inherited from the Viśrâmabâg Pâṭhasâlâ. It appears that the greater part of the work in connection with the purchase of manuscripts was done by Dr. Bühler, though to Dr. Kielhorn belongs the credit of purchasing the whole mass of the important palm-leaf manuscripts. Dr. Kielhorn's hands were fully occupied, besides, with the charge of the manuscripts, after it was decided to deposit all these acquisitions in Poona at the Deccan College. The Government of India had at first directed that the manuscripts purchased should be carefully preserved apart in the office of the Secretariat of each Local Government, pending the arrangements which may be made for their ultimate disposal. In accordance with this ruling, the manuscripts should have been concentred in Bombay. But it was urged that the climate of Bombay—damp and moist as it is—would prove injurious to the proper preservation of the manuscripts, and so it was decided that they should be housed in the Deccan College.

11. From almost the start of the work, Indian and European scholars began to make full use of the facilities thus afforded for the study of Sanskrit literature. We find, for instance, copies from Government manuscripts supplied to such European and American scholars as Professor Whitney of New Haven, and Professor Foucaux of Paris, and to such learned institutions in India as the Asiatic Society of Bengal for the use of Rajendralal Mitra. The library, however, had not then received that definite shape and organisation which it was to receive soon thereafter and which it now has. The work with regard to the loan and return of manuscripts fell to Dr. Kielhorn, the collections of manuscripts remaining in the sole personal charge of the acquirers pending only the submission of the report and their formal incorporation in the Manuscripts Library at the Deccan College. The continuity of the work was warranted by the fact that the grant of Rs. 3,200 provided by the Government of India was an annual one. Every year before the workers undertook their tour, they had to fix upon the places to be visited, and to write beforehand to the local officials and other persons, who would understand the value of the operations, to supply them with lists of manuscripts available for sale or copy. In many cases the services of paid agents—mostly Pandits or Shastris of the old type—were engaged, and the agents were sent in advance to make the work of the collection as smooth and quick as possible.

12. Besides thus collecting manuscripts for Government by purchase or transcription, another important work done was to publish lists of manuscripts in private libraries. Such unexplored private libraries exist even now, and may reveal quite a number of important works. Both Dr. Bühler and Dr. Kielhorn published a good many such lists at that time, and whenever and wherever a new work is to be undertaken, scholars still find it useful to refer to these lists.

13. Dr. Bühler has described in his own words the work he did in the cause of the search of Sanskrit manuscripts in an article contributed in 1888 to the Journal of the German Imperial Oriental Society (Z. D. M. G., Vol. 42, page 530 ff. "two lists of manuscripts together with remarks on my connection with the search of Sanskrit manuscripts."). It may be mentioned in passing that while engaged on the search on behalf of the Government of Bombay, Dr. Bühler was also allowed, by the special permission of Government, to purchase manuscripts on behalf of learned individuals and Societies in Europe.

14. The Government of India, after about ten years from the time when the scheme was put into execution, reviewed the whole position with regard to the discovery and preservation of the records of the ancient Sanskrit literature, in a Resolution of theirs—No. 250, dated Fort William, 9th February 1878—both as regards the results achieved and the lines to be followed thereafter. In their opinion the results, so far as Bombay was concerned, "were most satisfactory" and they expressed their "highest satisfaction at what had already been effected, especially by Dr. Bühler and Dr. Kielhorn of Bombay." They further laid down that while the general results were "such as to warrant the prosecution of the search" it was desirable to redistribute the work, with the result that instead of requiring one officer for each of the different Local Governments and the more important of the Native States, they suggested that, the whole of India should be divided, for purposes of the search of Sanskrit manuscripts, amongst three or utmost four officers. The details of this redistribution need not be mentioned except in so far as Bombay is concerned. To the Bombay Presidency proper were added Rajputana, Central India and Central Provinces. This is the arrangement which obtains even now.

15. Though the Resolution recorded by the Government of India and referred to above does not touch upon any financial arrangements to be made for the proper carrying out of the subsequent work, it seems that, soon after the date of the resolution, a very liberal provision of Rs. 8,000 per annum was made by the Government of India for the Bombay Circle—evidently in recognition of the "most satisfactory results" shown by Drs. Bühler and Kielhorn. As a direct result of this enhancement of the grant, it may be mentioned that the Bombay Government was thereby able to acquire that most valuable stock of palm-leaf manuscripts that the library now possesses, and for securing which Dr. Kielhorn is chiefly responsible. The importance of these manuscripts need scarcely be emphasised upon, seeing that they present the most ancient and reliable texts, being very carefully written down, and representing one whole class of literature: that of the Jains.

16. After Dr. Kielhorn's departure towards the end of 1881 Dr. Bhandarkar, who had been co-operating with him since the departure of Dr. Bühler, was for some time put in sole charge of the operations of the search. Professor Peterson, however, who was now occupying the Sanskrit chair at the Elphinstone College, Bombay, represented to Government that he might be allowed to co-operate with Dr. Bhandarkar "in what remains to be done of the work of the collecting of Sanskrit manuscripts, and the compiling of a catalogue," and also in the work of supervising the publications of the Bombay Sanskrit Series; and after a long correspondence between him and the Director of Public Instruction, the Government decided the point in favour of Dr. Peterson, who and Dr. Bhandarkar now became the two conductors of the search. By a mutual understanding, to which Dr. Peterson refers in glowing terms at the commencement of his report for 1882-83, the Bombay Circle as constituted by the addition of certain other areas (as stated above) was divided between the two professors; the Bombay professor was to explore the part north of Bombay and the Poona professor, the southern part, though it was open, after mutual consultation, to push the objects of the search in any part of the circle that might be deemed expedient. At the same time the grant, which then stood at Rs. 8,000 per annum (minus Rs. 1,500 hypothecated for work on inscriptions, as mentioned below), was equally divided between the two professors.

17. Both of them rose quite equal to the occasion and worthily carried on the work in the footsteps of their predecessors.

Dr. Bhandarkar's activities, begun in 1879 in co-operation with Dr. Kielhorn, are represented by the following collections—

Collection and year	Total No. of Mss. collected
A 1879-80	122
A 1881-82	467
1882-83	772
1883-84	737
1884-87	1,406
1887-91	1,502
Total ...	5,006

To this might be added a lot of 1,675 manuscripts which, though bought by Dr. Bhandarkar, were reported upon by his successor in office, Professor A. V. Kathavate. Dr. Bhandarkar's acquisitions, therefore, total 6,681 manuscripts. Comparing figures, these purchases are almost twice the number of manuscripts purchased by his two predecessors together. This remarkable achievement (remarkable in view of the fact that Dr. Kielhorn just before leaving India had reported to Government that no good stock of valuable manuscripts would be available for purchase as, according to him, all good libraries and places in the circle had been thoroughly exploited by himself and Dr. Bühler, and that almost all desirable possessions including Bhûrjapatra manuscripts had been secured for Government by them both) this achievement was due no less to the personal exertions and influence of the distinguished scholar than to the larger sums of money made available for the purpose by Government, and the growing confidence of the people in the motive of the search. Dr. Bhandarkar's predecessors had occasions to refer to the distrust and shyness constantly displayed by the possessors of manuscripts in showing forth their treasure and lending them for copying, to say nothing of selling them.

18. As regards the systematic treatment of the vast amount of manuscripts thus collected by him, and as representing one side of the manifold literary activities of Dr. Bhandarkar, mention is gratefully to be made of his reports that accompany the publications of lists of manuscripts collected by him. There are six such reports. Of them, those for the earliest of his two collections are of a formal nature, giving lists of manuscripts purchased, with a few remarks here and there. But his reports for 1882-83, 1883-84, 1884—87, and 1887—91 are productions of the highest order, and testify to the thoroughness and originality of his intellect and the soundness of his views. They throw quite a flood of light on many obscure points in the literary history of India. To take a few instances, his presentation of the Pâñcharâtra system, his view of its Kshatriya origin, his elucidation of some of the obscure phases in the development of the Śrauta literature; all these points, as contained in his report for 1883-84, together with many others, make his reports a vast depository of learning and critical acumen, and the only regret is that they are not more easily available for general reference.

19. Another publication of his is a list of manuscripts contained in private libraries. Many such lists had already been published by Dr. Bühler and Dr. Kielhorn. But the motives governing the earlier and later publications differed. The earlier publications (of Drs. Bühler and Kielhorn) were undertaken with a view to make the names of manuscripts and of their owners widely known, with the ultimate object of their being bought over by Government. But all the time that the search for manuscripts was being prosecuted, a new and higher consciousness was slowly being awakened amongst the people of the country with regard to the better preservation of the literary monuments of their forefathers by themselves. Thus sectional pride and indigenous enlightenment began to develop, and their combined activities replaced to a certain extent the work of Governmental agency; and it was already felt that the number of valuable manuscripts that would be thereafter offered for sale would gradually diminish. In the interests of Sanskrit scholarship it was necessary to make the existence of such manuscripts at least widely known, even though they could not possibly be secured for Government, and it was to meet this contingency that Dr. Bhandarkar published his lists of such manuscripts. It may here be mentioned that some years later, i.e., between 1903 and 1906, the attempt of systematically investigating private libraries was once more undertaken by Professor S. R. Bhandarkar in his two tours for that purpose made at the instance of the Government of India. He examined many of the private libraries in Central India, Central Provinces and Rajputana, and the results are embodied in his two reports submitted soon thereafter.

20. Dr. Peterson's achievements were no less encouraging and praiseworthy. Beginning in 1882, his work is shown as under—

Years	No. of Mss. collected
1882-83	367
1883-84	301
1884-86	657
1886-92	1,504
1892-95	987
1895-98	690
1898-99	100
Total...	4,606

Dr. Peterson also published six successive reports on his collections. They were, most of them, published as extra numbers of the Journal of the Bombay Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society, with substantial grants from the Government funds. They too show high literary merit, and keen appreciation of Sanskrit literature in many of its branches. His two indices of Jain authors and works are a veritable monument of his painstaking industry. His reports, besides, contain lists of manuscripts in many of the private unexplored Jain Bhandars, the owners of which so persistently preserve their manuscripts from public gaze, even when the persuasions are backed by official prestige. To the credit of the Jains, however, it may be noted that, so far as books relating to their religion and literature are concerned, all their sects have shown a quick and lively appreciation of their duty by coming forward and forming associations for the recovery, preservation and publication thereof.

21. The number of manuscripts, which at the departure of Dr. Kielhorn in 1881 stood at 4,088, was carried by Dr. Bhandarkar and Dr. Peterson to 15,375. There is, however, one disagreeable note which mars the enthusiasm of this period. Dr. Peterson had bitterly to complain of the first raid that had been committed on the annual grant of Rs. 8,000. Archæological and Epigraphical work was being simultaneously pushed forward, and Dr. Burgess, in charge of the Archæological Survey of India, succeeded in having a sum of Rs. 1,500 from the grant of Rs. 8,000 on account of Sanskrit manuscripts, diverted to his work on inscriptions, though it was provided that, whenever the sum was not expended on inscriptions, it could be made available for the manuscripts. The result was that the sum for the search of Sanskrit manuscripts, which stood at Rs. 8,000 at Dr. Bühler's departure, was immediately thereafter formally cut down to Rs. 6,500.

22. Then there was another problem that demanded immediate attention. In 1881, Dr. Kielhorn, the Professor of Sanskrit at the Deccan College, Poona, had reported that the care of the manuscripts in his charge was more than he could conveniently attend to, and that he had consequently to devote all his spare time to the task of properly arranging and cataloguing the manuscripts so as to render them easy of access and useful to students. In addition to freely utilising the services of the two shastris of the college in preparing lists, correcting proofs, etc., the general upkeep of the manuscripts was entrusted to one of the senior Fellows of the Deccan College. Matters thus continued, with the strain on the Professor of Sanskrit at Poona increasing with every new collection of manuscripts added to the library. The issue of manuscripts to scholars and the consequent official correspondence had also become brisker than before. As a result of all this, Professor R. G. Bhandarkar requested the Director of Public Instruction, in a letter addressed to him on the 11th of September 1883, to move Government to be pleased to sanction an Assistant to help him in all matters connected with manuscripts and their cataloguing. Government acceded to his request for the entertainment of an Assistant to the Professor of Sanskrit on Rs. 125. This charge—an annual expenditure of Rs. 1,500—was to be met from the general grant for the search of manuscripts. The sum of money that was henceforward available for the purchase of manuscripts was Rs. 5,000 unencumbered by any other charges.

23. It is from 1884, when the Assistant was first appointed (Mr. S. R. Bhandarkar being the first occupant of this post), that proper records of the manuscripts library, together with a due register of all loans and returns of manuscripts, are maintained, though some of them date from 1882, when Dr. Bhandarkar came to occupy the chair of the Professor of Oriental Languages at the Deccan College in succession to Dr. Kielhorn.

24. Taking now a rapid review of the second stage in the development of the manuscripts library, a stage which may be called a period of its youth and all-sided growth under the guidance of Drs. Bhandarkar and Peterson, we find (1) the number of manuscripts risen from 4,088 to 15,375; (2) the annual grant first going up from Rs. 3,200 to Rs. 8,000 with a subsequent reduction of Rs. 1,500 on account of inscriptions, and still another of Rs. 1,500 on account of the pay of the Assistant Professor; (3) the manuscripts library assuming a definite shape with proper records of loans, etc., kept; (4) the formal recognition of Poona, Deccan College, as the settled habitat of the library; and (5) the employment of an Assistant to help the Poona Sanskrit Professor in all matters connected with the manuscripts library.

25. It was not, however, to be premised that nothing more was intended to be done with regard to the manuscripts collected than simply housing them properly and putting them under the direct charge of a special Assistant. A good catalogue is ever as great a necessity as a good library itself. The idea of cataloguing manuscripts properly in order that their contents might be more widely known and in order to facilitate their easy identification in doubtful cases had been kept in view from the first. But in the earlier stages of the search, nothing more could possibly be done than to publish periodically nominal lists of manuscripts with such meagre information regarding the authors, date, etc., as could be obtained from a cursory inspection of the manuscripts, not to speak of the lack of sufficient material to work upon. Then, these lists were published at different times, in different places and in different forms, and all of them could not be easily had for purposes of reference. In short, a consolidated catalogue of all our acquisitions was felt to be a serious desideratum, and in order to remedy this want such a catalogue was published in 1888, giving in an approved form the names of all manuscripts collected according to the years seriatum since the start of the search in 1868 down to 1884, being in form a reprint of all the earlier lists—many of them out of print—with the addition of a serviceable general index. That this catalogue, so far as it goes, is a highly useful compilation, has been acknowledged by so industrious a scholar as Aufrecht. The catalogue also contained two lists of manuscripts, which the Government of Bombay inherited from the late Peshwas, as being their direct successors in the possession of this part of the country, and which go by the name of Viśrâmabâg collections from the fact of their being formerly deposited in a palace of the Peshwas going by that name, where a pâṭhaśâlâ (school of Vedic studies) was maintained for some time.

26. In so far, therefore, as the question of an exhaustive nominal list of all our collections being made easily available was concerned, there was left nothing to be desired. But when relatively smaller collections of Oriental manuscripts, such as the one in the Bodleian Library at Oxford, were represented before the world of Orientalists by such masterly descriptive catalogues as those of Aufrecht, the desire was natural that a library of manuscripts which quite justifiably boasted even in 1881—before it had received the voluminous acquisitions made by Drs. Bhandarkar and Peterson—of being one of the largest, if not indeed the largest of its kind in the world, should have a descriptive catalogue based on a somewhat similar model. It was Dr. Kielhorn who made a definite move in this matter. While on the eve of departing from India, he brought to the notice of the Government of Bombay, in a letter addressed to them on the 30th of November 1881, the desirability of undertaking such a work. It is not meant that the idea of making such a descriptive catalogue of our manuscripts originated with him. When the Government of India directed the search of Sanskrit manuscripts to be undertaken in 1868, the ultimate preparation of such a catalogue to be made in Europe was one of the points prominently kept in view, the lists of acquisitions to be published from time to time being regarded merely as the preliminary ground work for the same. Mr. Stokes, (as we have seen) had laid great emphasis upon having the catalogue prepared in Europe, adding in his minute that such a catalogue could only be produced in Europe, or at all events, by European scholars capable of understanding catalogues which European Orientalists had already published in the Latin, German and other languages; and again, "to Europe we should send everything obtained in working out this scheme—manuscripts, copies, extracts; for in Europe alone are the true principles of philology and criticism understood and applied, and fifty years hence, in Europe alone will any intelligent interest be felt in Sanskrit literature." He had even indulged in the prophesy that within a short time, there would be as few Sanskrit scholars in India as there were Greek scholars in Greece about that time.

27. The original idea thus was to send all manuscripts collected in India to Europe, and to have the descriptive catalogue prepared there by European scholars. The idea of sending away the manuscripts to Europe for good was, however, soon dropped, as it seems to have evoked strong opposition and protest; the idea of having a catalogue prepared in Europe by European scholars, on the contrary, lingered behind. Relying on this hypothesis, we find Dr. Kielhorn, in his letter referred to above, submitting his proposals in the matter. He quoted certain words of Max Müller that in Mr. Burnell, Dr. Bühler and himself (Dr. Kielhorn) Government possessed scholars, who could do the work of cataloguing in a satisfactory manner, and, after alluding to the dictum of Mr. Whitney Stokes about the quality of work to be expected from Indian scholars, he proceeded to elaborate his own scheme. A certain number of manuscripts were to be sent from time to time to Europe through the India Office and scholars were to be invited who would assist in producing a general catalogue on the lines of Aufrecht's Bodleian catalogue. Certain branches of Sanskrit literature were to be assigned to scholars who had made a special study of those branches, and every scholar was to be made individually responsible for his share of the work. Under these arrangements Dr. Kielhorn hoped that an "excellent catalogue" of all the manuscripts thitherto collected could be prepared within five or six years. As regards the cost of such a catalogue, basing his calculations on the rate of remuneration paid for Max Müller's Sacred Books of the East, and supposing that not more than two volumes could be produced in one year, he was of opinion that an annual provision of Rs. 2,000 would be sufficient for the purpose. The Government of Bombay, in a Resolution, No. 2053, in their Educational Department, dated the 27th December 1881, gave their "entire" approval to the scheme of Dr. Kielhorn, the execution of which was left to the Professor of Sanskrit in charge of the manuscripts at the Deccan College, under the general supervision of the Director of Public Instruction. The scheme was at the same time communicated in a Despatch to the Secretary of State for India in Council.

28. The Secretary of State embodied his approval of the scheme in a Despatch of his, No. 13, dated 18th May 1882, and conveyed certain other propositions enunciated by his Librarian, Dr. Rost, for guidance in the transmission of manuscripts. The matter was duly reported to Dr. Kielhorn at Göttingen who desired all grammatical manuscripts to be reserved for him for cataloguing under the scheme, and, in addition to Dr. Bühler for whom all manuscripts of Dharmaśâstra were destined, urged the inclusion of the names of Professors Pischel and Jacobi, and later, that of Garbe. The first was to catalogue all Prakrit, Rhetoric and dramatic manuscripts, the second, the Jain, and the last, the Vedic manuscripts. It was again emphasised that Aufrecht's Bodleian catalogue was to be the model, except for the fact that our catalogue was to be written in English. Dr. Kielhorn was further confident that the work of cataloguing would be begun in earnest by the several scholars concerned, not later than January 1883. Matters thus appeared to promise well, and make a satisfactory beginning. Batches of manuscripts from the manuscripts library were from time to time forwarded to scholars in the order desired by them, the first batch going under this arrangement to Dr. Kielhorn on the 7th of December 1882. He also acted as the intermediary between the Director of Public Instruction (Mr. Chatfield) and the European scholars. No further trace of this scheme can be had during the next fourteen years except the fact that manuscripts were sent to Europe and received back. The next information we have in this matter, is a letter No. 40, addressed by Dr. Bhandarkar to the Director of Public Instruction on the 4th of July 1895. He reported that all manuscripts (not many in number) that had been lent to the European scholars for cataloguing under this scheme had been returned into the library, and that no other scholar except the five persons mentioned above, had come forward to undertake the work. He further added that though, according to Professor Kielhorn's original plan, the catalogues made by those scholars were to be sent to him for publication, he had neither received one, nor seen any one printed in Europe; he therefore urged upon Mr. Chatfield the advisability of writing to Dr. Kielhorn to enquire into the matter. The Director however entrusted the work to Dr. Bhandarkar.

29. The Government of India had, in the meanwhile, raised the question of the continuance or otherwise of the search. Opinions, so far as Bombay was concerned, were divided on the point. Professor Peterson and Professor Kathavate (who succeeded Dr. Bhandarkar in the Sanskrit chair at the Deccan College) urged the continuance of the search, while Dr. Bhandarkar himself was of the opinion that the search might be discontinued under certain safeguards. He thought that a systematic and annual search for manuscripts was not necessary, as it did not yield very important results, and suggested that a fixed sum of money should be placed at the disposal of the two Sanskrit Professors to enable them to purchase valuable finds in Poona and Bombay (without going about seeking after them), or to undertake periodical searches only if deemed necessary. Mr. Chatfield however, whose sympathies were with Dr. Peterson and Professor Kathavate, pointed out "it is a thousand pities that our libraries should not be enriched, and Government should lose the credit of its patronage, while there are enthusiastic workers glad to give their time for nothing." The Bombay Government finally recommended the search to be continued till the end of 1896-97, and at the same time they called for more definite information regarding the outcome of Dr. Kielhorn's cataloguing scheme.

30. In addition, therefore, to the preparation of a report on the over 1,500 manuscripts collected by Dr. Bhandarkar and handed over to him for being reported upon, Professor Kathavate had two problems before him demanding his close and careful attention about this time (1896), namely, to deal with the moribund cataloguing scheme of the European scholars, and to insist (if necessary) on the continuance of the search for Sanskrit manuscripts, and therefore also, on the continuance of the grant. Regarding the latter problem, Professor Kathavate was not able to carry his point. Those were days of great financial stringency and, in spite of the representations of the two professors, the annual grant for the discovery and preservation of Sanskrit manuscripts was reduced by the Government of India from Rs. 8,000 to Rs. 3,000, on which the first charge was to be the Assistant Professor's pay at Rs. 125 per mensem. The incubus of the charge on account of inscriptions was however totally removed, and the balance of Rs. 1,500 that would remain after defraying the Assistant Professor's pay, was to be distributed between the two Sanskrit Professors at the Deccan and Elphinstone Colleges. The Bombay Professor succeeded in securing as his share the larger part of the sum, namely, Rs. 1,000, mainly through the strenuous representations of Dr. Peterson, and the balance of Rs. 500 only fell to the share of the Poona Professor, to be utilised by him in looking after the library and purchasing manuscripts.

31. As regards the cataloguing scheme, Professor Kathavate had to meet an equally gloomy situation. No reply had been received to Dr. Bhandarkar's communication addressed to Dr. Kielhorn. The Director himself in a letter of his, No. 2917 of 11th August 1898, written to the learned Doctor at Göttingen, begged of him to be informed as to whether European scholars would be able to undertake any more cataloguing, and to complete any such work already undertaken. Failing aid from Europe Mr. Giles, the then Director, requested to be favoured with Dr. Kielhorn's view regarding the best method of procedure in cataloguing the manuscripts at the Deccan College with the means at disposal in India, if it turned out that we would be required to content ourselves with a less ambitious catalogue than the one originally proposed, provided, however it meant no loss of practical utility. Dr. Kielhorn's reply dated 26th October, 1898, was soon received. He plainly confessed to a failure of his scheme, as most of the scholars who had promised their co-operation could not keep up their engagements, except perhaps Dr. Kielhorn himself who, as he wrote, had catalogued a number of grammatical manuscripts, and Professor Pischel, who had similarly treated some of the rhetoric manuscripts. Dr. Bühler was "always too busy with other important work; Professor Garbe, who was to have done the Vedic works, went to India and devoted himself to Indian Philosophy entirely. Jacobi gave up the Jain literature, being unwilling to do over again what Weber was known to be doing with the Berlin manuscripts." Dr. Kielhorn in his letter further alluded to the fact, obvious enough to every one, that it was exceedingly difficult for a scholar in Europe to catalogue manuscripts destined for permanent residence in India, even though the manuscripts could be placed at his disposal for any length of time. Under these circumstances, he advised the preparation, under Professor Kathavate's editorship, of a shorter catalogue on the model of his catalogue of the Sanskrit manuscripts in the Göttingen University Library. This catalogue, he added, contained everything necessary, and differed in one important respect only from Aufrecht's catalogue, namely, in not giving the authors or works which might be quoted in any manuscript described. Such a modest catalogue, he was confident, would not take more than five or six years, and could well be done under Professor Kathavate's superintendence by a qualified librarian with occasional help from other scholars; and this was all the more feasible, as the catalogues of the three large European libraries containing Sanskrit manuscripts, and Professor Aufrecht's invaluable Catalogus Catalogorum, had been already published.

32. This letter of Dr. Kielhorn, at once sad and hopeful, must have been received with varied feelings by the parties concerned, namely the Government of Bombay, the Director, and Professor Kathavate. They were now thrown on their own resources, and Professor Kathavate adumbrated a scheme for preparing a descriptive catalogue under his own superintendence. In drawing the outlines of this catalogue, he followed in the main Dr. Kielhorn's catalogue of manuscripts in the Göttingen University, and the catalogue of Sanskrit manuscripts in the India Office Library which was then appearing.

33. The first question to be settled in connection with this new scheme of cataloguing was as regards the person who was to do it. Such a person was made availabe in the Assistant to the Professor of Sanskrit at the Deccan College, whose retention, after being made the subject of much correspondence in connection with the reduction of grant, had been decided upon, some time before, exactly for this contingency, namely, that of the catalogue having to be prepared in India.

34. Professor Kathavate's scheme was to divide the whole body of manuscripts that had till then accumulated into twenty divisions as under :—

Vedic literature	Sûtra literature
Smṛiti	Itihâsa
Purâṇa	Dharmaśâstra
Philosophy	Kâvya
Vyâkaraṇa	Kośa
Sâhitya	Saṅgîta
Jyotisha	Vaidyaka
Silpa	Bhakti
Tantra	Jaina
Prâkṛita	Vernacular

These principal divisions were further to be branched off into appropriate sub-divisions. Thus the first division "Vedic Literature" would be sub-divided into (1) Saṁhitā, (2) Brâhmaṇas, (3) Araṇvakas, (4) Upanishadas. Each of these sub-divisions was to be further divided according to the different Vedas. To take one more instance, "Philosophy" would first be divided into the six orthodox Darśanas, namely, Pûrvamîmâṁsa, Uttaramîmâṁsa, Sâṅkhya, Yoga, Nyâya and Vaiśeshika. Uttaramîmâṁsa would again have to be sub-divided into the Advaita of Śaṅkara, the Viśishṭâdvaita of Râmânuja, the Dvaita of Madhva, and the Śuddhâdvaita of Vallabha and Nimbârka respectively. The Kâśmîr schools of Philosophy would make another section of the principal head "Philosophy."

35. Mr. Giles recommended this scheme to the acceptance of Government, who sanctioned it in their Resolution, No. 355, Educational Department, dated 22nd March 1899. With this date the cataloguing scheme entered on the second period of its history. Henceforward the work was to be done, on the lines indicated above, by the Assistant to the Professor of Sanskrit; the work when done was to be sent to the Government Central Press for being printed and published. The catalogue was to be produced within a reasonable time—Dr. Kielhorn thought five or six years sufficient for that purpose, the models to be followed being Dr. Kielhorn's and Professor Eggeling's catalogues mentioned above—and the position of the work was to be reported annually to the Director of Public Instruction.

36. The Assistant Professor, Mr. Banhatti, accordingly set himself to work, and we find reports made to the Director, every year, as to the progress of cataloguing. With regard to the printing of the material thus brought into existence, it seems to have been thought that it was to be sent to the Press, after the whole of the descriptive catalogue of something like 20,000 works was got ready in at least 20 separate volumes. The method of work followed seems to have been to confine attention primarily to a few selected subjects, and describe, from the various collections, all manuscripts that belonged to those subjects. Experience, however, has shown that it is better, as tending to more economy of space and energy, to describe together, one after another, all the manuscripts of any particular work, if the same work was to be found scattered over nearly thirty different collections.

37. Matters, however, proceeded in this way till 1907 when there was a change of hands. At the same time it was also thought that it was impracticable to wait till all the manuscripts in the library were completely catalogued; for by the time the last parts were got ready, the earlier parts might be in danger of becoming out of date; and in any case, it was essential to show to the world of scholars, that our collection—unique of its kind—was not being neglected. It was decided, therefore, to publish parts of the catalogue successively as they got ready, and so efforts were concentrated on sending to the Press matter for the first volume of the new catalogue, consisting of Saṁhitâ, Brâhmaṇa, and allied works. This instalment was sent by Mr. Ghate (who succeeded Mr. Banhatti) to the Government Central Press on the 4th December, 1907, nearly ten years after the inception of Professor Kathavate's new scheme. Proofs of the material sent began duly to come in and, except once right in the beginning when some extensive changes had to be introduced in the proofs to avoid all omissions and undue repetitions and to give a systematic form to the whole, no undue delay arose from our side. Still the printing of this volume has taken full eight years, the delay being due mainly to the unusual difficulties the Press had to meet, especially in regard to typography. The Press however is to be congratulated upon having done the work as well as it could be under the circumstances.

38. Nobody has more keenly felt the abnormal delay that has been thus caused in the publication of this volume than those in charge of the Manuscripts Library. The matter was duly brought to the notice of the authorities concerned. The Government Press could not, for reasons mentioned, expediate the work. The work could not be entrusted to any private printing house, as evidently more money for the work could not be made available. The work in the cause of Sanskrit manuscripts which had started so very enthusiastically and successfully, with every promise of the manuscripts library becoming the world's centre of reference about ancient Sanskrit literature, ceased suddenly—so it seemed—to evoke interest.

39. The volume that is now offered contains a descriptive catalogue of all the manuscripts of Saṁhitâs and Brâhmaṇas together with miscellaneous Sûktas (which are in the nature of extracts from these) that are to be found in our successive subordinate collections beginning with the year 1868 and coming down to the year 1899. In addition to the volume now published, manuscript material for four or five more volumes is almost ready for the Press, being the work of the Assistant Professors Banhati, Ghate, Belvalkar, Ranade and Utgikar. The material which is thus ready covers all grammar manuscripts,—not Dr. Kielhorn's work—all Sâṅkhya and Yoga manuscripts as also more than half the number of the Lexicon Smṛiti, Purâṇa, and Upanishad manuscripts. It was also during this period that a thorough overhauling of all the manuscripts in the Library took place. Every paper manuscript was provided with card-board pieces and an alwan wrapper with a label while the Bhûrja and palm-leaf manuscripts have all been endowed with card-board boxes lined with oil cloth.

40. With the final publication of this first volume of our Descriptive Catalogue so near in sight,—albeit after a waiting of so many years—the whole position had to be reconsidered, in the light of the experience derived, and some more practical arrangements had to be made for the future. It has been found that there were some difficulties inherent in the system of cataloguing itself that was followed. Professor Kathavate had proposed to arrange the catalogue under about twenty headings, and experience showed that even more would be required. If before a page of the description was written, the manuscripts had been distributed into those groups, the work of description would have been much simplified, and there would have been no omissions and double entries. Under the system followed, this was inevitable; for it was discovered that the earlier lists, being prepared by different hands at different times and for different purposes, could not be absolutely depended upon for their classification. In course of time it became necessary to scrutinise every name in the list, and where the name was no sufficient guide, to scrutinise every manuscript, to make sure that no manuscript belonging to a particular section was omitted. As mentioned before, Professor Kathavate had intended that the whole twenty sections should be catalogued before any part was sent to the Press, so that no manuscripts might be overlooked. But this was objected to, and with reason. Further, as the manuscripts in the Library were arranged by collections, it was inexpedient to re-arrange the entire Library by subject-matter. But another possibility existed: the possibility, viz., of solving the problem by the help of card indices. If cards were to be prepared giving the desired information regarding the manuscripts, and these cards instead of the actual manuscripts be arranged according to the subjects or authors or alphabetically or in all these ways together, it would afford, first, an index for ready reference and secondly it might make the whole work of later cataloguing very easy.

41. It was therefore proposed to the Government of Bombay, in April 1915, that before the scheme of producing a descriptive catalogue on the old lines was allowed to be proceeded with, it would be advantageous to prepare a card index to all the manuscripts in the Library, including not only those lists of which were published and available to the public, but also those lists of which were yet to be published.—Both the Professors of Sanskrit at the Deccan and Elphinstone Colleges have continued to purchase a number of manuscripts since the time the reports were last published. The number of manuscripts thus bought since 1895 in Poona, and since 1899 in Bombay, is by no means small.—This proposal fortunately met with a ready response from the Hon'ble Mr. Sharp, the Director of Public Instruction, and from the Government of Bombay, who have sanctioned the scheme in a Resolution of theirs, No. 304 Educational Department, dated 15th October 1915, and have provided the requisite sum of money calculated to meet the expenses of the scheme. Work in that direction will be undertaken as soon as possible.

42. The information which each single manuscript under this scheme will be made to yield, and which will be noted on the descriptive card, will be with regard to its (1) title, (2) collection to which it belongs and its old number, (3) its position in the Library (cupboard, shelf, etc.), (4) its subject, (5) its author, (6) its age, and all other important items that deserve to be noted. There is to be a card for every manuscript, and the cards will be arranged in the order of collections, that is, in the order in which the manuscripts were acquired in successive years and in which they are at present kept in the Library. This card index—which is to be written by hand—is intended to form the material on the basis of which it is contemplated to compile two more catalogues (again on card): one according to the subjects and titles of the manuscripts, and the other, according to the authors. It is intended to print and publish a limited number of these two catalogues, and make them available to learned societies and institutions in India, Europe, and America, where they would be within the reach of all scholars.

43. Our present position, therefore, with regard to the cataloguing scheme is that we do not want to publish any more catalogues of the nature of the volume now put forth, unless and until we have completed the indexing of all the manuscripts in the Library and have got ready and published the two catalogues mentioned above. These latter, it is hoped, will be indispensable to any future historian of Sanskrit Literature, and would be, so far as our Library is concerned, a Catalogus Catalogorum. After these two sets of catalogues have been prepared and published, the question will be decided whether descriptive catalogues on the old lines, and on the model of this present volume, will still have to be produced.

44. The card catalogue will include, in addition to the manuscripts lists of which have been already published, the manuscripts bought during the last fifteen years, and also those that will be purchased hereafter. The acquisitions of the last fifteen years include (1) about 830 manuscripts purchased by Professor Kathavate between 1895 and 1901; (2) about 875 manuscripts purchased by Professor S. R. Bhandarkar from 1900 to 1915; (3) 239 manuscripts purchased by Professor Pathak between 1901 and 1907; and lastly (4) about 100 manuscripts purchased by Professor Ghate from 1907 to 1915. To this has to be added Dr. Bühler's collection of 1866-68, numbering about 200 manuscripts, which has been only recently transferred to this Library from the Elphinstone College, Bombay, where it was so long deposited. All these new acquisitions, totalling about 2,300 manuscripts, together with the former 15,000 manuscripts (lists of which have been published) represent a collection of about 18,000 manuscripts focused in one place and containing nearly 20,000 works (there being many manuscripts which contain more than one work).

45. The Manuscripts Library has no building of its own. It is accommodated in a hall placed at its disposal in the main building of the Deccan College. It is a fairly large hall, but not large enough for the needs of the Manuscripts Library, with the result that some of the cupboards had to be from the first accommodated in other parts of the College. In fact, the want of an independent, spacious and fireproof building has been keenly felt all along and more so during these last years. The matter was brought to the notice of the Government of Bombay and they have formally recognised the necessity of such a building for the Manuscripts Library in their Resolution No. 247, dated February 3, 1910, Educational Department.

46. We owe it therefore to the courtesy of the successive Principals of the Deccan College that the Manuscript Library can claim a connection with that old and venerable institution. In one essential respect the Government Manuscripts Library owes a deep debt of gratitude to the College. Quite a number of books and periodicals are constantly required in the course of the cataloguing work, and but for the frequent use made of the valuable library of the Deccan College, the work of description would have been seriously hampered. The Manuscripts Library at present has no library of printed books as such; but an attempt is now being made to form the nucleus of such a library by requesting all intending borrowers of manuscripts to make a present of copies of such editions and other works as they might produce with the help of the manuscripts borrowed.

47. Such is our present position. That ours is a unique collection and, so far, the largest of its kind in the world everybody knows. That it continues to be drawn upon from every part of the civilised world scarcely needs emphasising. There is hardly any branch of Sanskrit Literature the component works of which are not to be found in a decent number in our Library. That no library of Oriental manuscripts possesses as valuable and numerous a stock of manuscripts of Jain literature as our Library has, has been acknowledged by scholars from the very beginning and in fact it could even be said that there is hardly any edition of an important work brought out in any part of the world which had not to use, in some way or other, manuscripts of this Library. Our Library also differs from some other libraries of the same kind—Government or private—in that its manuscripts are lent out. Scholars have their requisitions for loans of manuscripts attended to promptly; and the few rules that are intended for the successful working of the Library will be found printed at the end of this Foreword.

48. It is to be hoped that in fulness of time this Manuscripts Library, possessing proper housing accommodation and fully equipped with all kinds of literary resources, would still further widen its sphere of usefulness and become one of the most prominent world centres of Oriental Learning and exert a healthy influence on the growth of Indian scholarship guided by sound principles of modern criticism. Its future is great and full of untold possibilities; and it is for scholars of all nations and of all times to come to make what use they deem best of this splendid monument to the literary achievement of ancient India, raised by the generosity of the Government of India and Government of Bombay and supplemented by the devout and untiring efforts of some of the best of European and Indian scholars.

RULES

FOR THE GOVERNMENT MANUSCRIPTS LIBRARY DECCAN COLLEGE, POONA

1. This Library is maintained by the Government of Bombay, and is under the general control of the Director of Public Instruction, Bombay.

2. It is under the direct charge and superintendence of the Professor of Sanskrit, Deccan College, Poona, aided by one Assistant Professor, the latter being responsible for all the manuscripts, and the general upkeep of the Library.

3. The manuscripts in the Library, if in good condition, and subject to the requirements of the Library, are lent out to boná-fide scholars on their applying for them in writing to the Professor of Sanskrit, Deccan College, Poona. Scholars shall have, however, to execute a bond for the value of the manuscripts required, this value being fixed by the officers in charge of the Library.

4. In the case of scholars from outside India, all requisitions for loans of manuscripts shall be made to the Secretary of State for India in Council, through whom also all transactions in manuscripts shall take place. Such scholars shall execute the necessary bond with the Secretary of State for India in Council, at his discretion.

5. In the case of scholars in India, the execution of the bond shall be necessary before the manuscripts are lent out. When the applicant is not sufficiently known to the Professor of Sanskrit, Deccan College, this latter officer shall have the power to call upon the applicant to produce a certificate as to his interest in the study of Sanskrit Literature and of his being a fit person to be entrusted with Government manuscripts. Such certificate shall have to be signed by Orientalists of recognised scholarship or by Government officers of the Provincial or any other higher service not below the rank of a Deputy Collector or Extra Assistant Commissioner. The certificate should contain a reference to any work or essay published by the applicant.

6. An application preferred by any intending borrower and accompanied by such a certificate shall state the reasons for which the manuscripts may be required and the period for which the loan is sought.

7. If any manuscripts belonging to this Library have been used in the publication of an edition, or in any other learned disquisition, it is eminently desirable that the authors should send to the Manuscripts Library a copy of the work or works, for the sake of reference.

8. The number of manuscripts to be lent out at a time to a scholar, and the period of loan, shall be determined by the officers in charge of the Library. Usually however, in the case of Indian scholars, not more than five manuscripts are allowed to remain with him at a time, and the period of loan shall not normally exceed six months.

9. Immediately on receipt of manuscripts the scholars are requested to examine them carefully before signing and returning the receipt-form accompanying the manuscripts, as no complaints shall be entertained thereafter.

10. When the manuscripts are returned to the Library they shall be examined, and if found in their original condition, the receipt formerly signed for them shall be returned and the bond cancelled. The liability of the borrowers ceases only after the return of this receipt.

11. If scholars find that, owing to the work on the manuscripts not being completed within the stipulated period, they cannot return the manuscripts when due, they shall, sufficiently in advance, apply in writing to that effect to the Professor of Sanskrit, Deccan College, or the Secretary of State for India in Council, as the case may be. The period of loan will be extended at discretion. In no case, however, shall any manuscript be allowed to remain with a scholar longer than two years in India, and five years in Europe.

12. The Manuscripts Library reserves to itself the right of refusing to lend out any manuscript to any scholar at any time, and in the case of manuscripts lent out, of demanding their return before the expiry of the stipulated period, if the manuscripts be required for library or other purposes.

A LIST OF OUR
PRINTED CATALOGUES AND REPORTS

The following is the list of works (Catalogues, Reports, etc.) already published embodying the results of the search and preservation of Sanskrit manuscripts in the Bombay Circle from 1868 to 1915. All lists published up to 1884 have been incorporated in our consolidated catalogue prepared by Mr. S. R. Bhandarkar, M.A., in 1888. The lists for the subsequent years are to be found embodied in the various Reports published thereafter. These Reports are of considerable value, inasmuch as they give in many cases the history of individual manuscripts, personal details of authors, their chronology, and such other items. All these works are therefore here put together in one place for ready reference—

Papers relating to the Collection and Preservation of the Records of ancient Sanskrit Literature, edited by order of Government of India, Calcutta, 1878, by Mr. E. A. Gough. This is a useful work for the general history of the Search during the earlier period upto 1878 and contains, among other things, lists of manuscripts bought for Government during the years 1868-69, 1869-70, 1870-71, 1871-72, 1872-73 and 1874-75. All these lists, originally published at different times, were also included in our consolidated catalogue (to be mentioned below) published in 1888.

Report on the results of the Search for Sanskrit Manuscripts in Gujarat during 1871-72, by G. Bühler, Surat, 1872, 11 pages in folio.

A. SAṀHITÂS AND BRÂHMAṆAS, AND WORKS RELATING THERETO.

I. ṚIGVEDA.

ऋग्वेदसंहिता.	Ṛigvedasaṁhitâ with
खिलकाण्डारण्यकसहिता.	Khilakâṇḍa and Âraṇyaka.

No 1. 5./1875-76.

Description.—The Ms. is a beautiful specimen of the old type Mss. of Kâs'mîra. It consists of 191 oblong leaves of birch-bark with borders secured by pasting slips of country paper, each leaf measuring $10\frac{1}{4}$ in. by $9\frac{1}{2}$ in. The birch bark being very thin, each leaf of the Ms. is made up of two sheets pasted back to back so as to make it rather thick aud serviceable for writing purposes. The leaves are written on both the sides and are arranged in the form of a modern book. The Ms. is placed in a convenient folding box made up of thick paper boards secured in leather and lined with linen stuffed with cotton. The Ms. is in good preservation but the bark leaves have become very brittle.

The Ms. is written in Śâradâ character, and the handwriting is bold, legible and correct. The text is accented throughout. The method of giving accents to the Vedic texts is rather peculiar to Kâśmîra Mss. Instead of marking the anudâtta and the svarita by horizontal and vertical strokes, as is the case in almost all the Devanâgarî Mss., the udâtta is marked in this Ms. by a small vertical stroke above the letter, and the anudâttas and svaritas are left unmarked. This method of marking accents is more simple and saves much labour. The contracted name of the Ms. together with the subject treated in the page and the number of the folio is given at the left hand lower corner of the margin of the b side of each leaf, thus—

ऋग्वे.	i. e.	ऋग्वेदसंहिता.	or सं. आ.	i. e.	संहिता आरण्यक.
म. ष.	,,	षष्ठं मंडलं.	अ. २	,,	अध्यायः २.
or खिल	,,	खिलकांड.	१८९	,,	पत्रं १८९.

Beginning of the Ms.—The borders of the first and the last few pages have worn out. The first leaf is much damaged and consequently the beginning of the Ms. is gone out. The letters of the first line that has remained on the page are :—ऋक्संख्याऋषिदेवतछंदांस्यनुक्रमिष्या-- । This is followed by the full text of the परिभाषा portion of the सर्वानुक्रमणी, which ends about the 9th line on b side of leaf one, thus:—इति परिभाषा समाप्ता । ॐ नमो ब्रह्मणे । ॐ तेजोसि सहोसि -लमसि &c. This last is a kind of S'ânti which continues for four lines more and is then followed by the सर्वानुक्रमणी relating to the 1st Adhyâya :—--धुच्छन्दाविश्वामित्र -- &c. Each Adhyâya of each Ashṭaka is similarly introduced by the corresponding portion of the Sarvânukramaṇî.

The text of the Ṛigveda Saṁhitâ begins thus : ॐ अग्निमीळे पुरोहितं यज्ञस्य देवमृत्विजम् । There is no separate numbering of the Adhyâyas of each Ashṭaka, but they are all consecutively numbered ; the end of each Adhyâya being shown by the colophon इत्यष्टमोध्यायः । ॐ नमो ब्रह्मणे or इत्यृग्वेद एकादशोध्यायः । &c., The numbers of the vargas are given in the body of the text in Kâśmîra figures and the same is repeated in the marginal paper strip in English figures. This numbering appears to be rather irregular ; the leaf is also similarly numbered in pencil at the top of the paper strip probably in the hand of Dr. Bühler, who secured for Government this rare and valuable Ms.

End of the Ṛigveda Saṁhitâ—The text of the whole of the Ṛigveda Saṁhitâ concludes at the end of the a side of leaf No. 176. The colophon here reads thus :—इति श्री ऋग्वेदे शाकलके दशम (म)ण्डले नाम चतुष्षष्टितमोध्यायस्सम्पूर्णं समाप्तम् ।

Beginning of Khila—On the b side of the same leaf, i. e. 176, the Khilakâṇḍa begins in these words :—ॐ नमो विष्णवे । अथ खिलेषु सूक्तप्रतीकायुक्तं प्रयोजनं शतर्च्यादीनामभि(?षि)दैवतालक्षणानि च, छंदानां चाधिक्यं च, कृतिः प्रकृतिराकृतिवि(? विं)कृतिस्संस्कृतिरभिकृतिरुत्कृतिरित्यशीत्यक्षरादीनि चतुरुत्तराण्येव यङ्ग्र(?)थिसंख्यान् (?) वपुरादितुल्यं ऋषीणां च तुल्यं नाम्नां गोत्रमनादेशे खिलान्यपरमनूक्तान्येव संख्यादीन्य(?)संभवेत् । सत्यं च शश्वत्पु--&c.

The peculiarity of the Ms. is that all the khilas have been arranged together at the end of the 10th Maṇḍala, instead of placing them in their natural positions in the midst of the various Maṇḍalas, as is generally the case in all Devanâgarî Mss. The khilas, moreover, as Dr. Bühler states in his Report, 'differ considerably from the text given in Professor Max Müller's quarto edition.'

The Khilakâṇḍa consisting of 5 adhyâyas and 47 sections goes as far as the middle of the b side of leaf No. 188 and ends in these words :—इत्यृग्वेदे खिले पञ्चमोध्यायस्सम्पूर्णं समाप्तम् ।

Beginning of Âraṇyaka—At this place on the same page begins the Aitareya Âraṇyaka III of the Ṛigveda with these words : —ओं नमश्शिवाय । ओं अथातस्संहिताया उपनिषत्पृथिवी पूर्वरूपं, द्यौरुत्तररूपं, &c.

The Âraṇyaka ends in the middle of the a side of the last leaf, i. e. leaf No. 191 thus :—रता एता संहिता नानन्तेवासिने प्रब्रूयान्नासंवत्सरवासिने नाप्रवक्त्र इत्याचार्या आचार्याः । इत्यृग्वेदे संहितारण्ये द्वितीयोध्यायः ।

Lastly the S'ânti of the Aitareya Âraṇyaka is given without accents It runs thus :— ॐ नमश्शिवाय । ॐ उदितः शुक्रियं दधे तदहमात्मनि दधे । and is carried down to—पश्येम शरदश्शतञ्जीवेम शरदश्शतम् । after which we have—अग्ने इळा मन(नम) इळा नम ऋषिभ्यो मन्त्रकृद्भ्यो मन्त्रपतिभ्यो नमो नो अस्तु &c., &c. माते व्योम संदृशि । भद्रङ्कर्णेभि ऋक् । शन्न इन्द्राग्नी ऋक् । स्तुषे जनम् ऋक् । कयानश्चित्रः। कस्त्वा सत्यो मदानाम् । अभी षु णः । स्योना पृथिवी भव । सप्रथ इति शान्तिश्शान्तिश्शान्तिः । इत्यृग्वेदे संहितारण्ये तृतीयोध्यायः । This means of course the end of the third Âraṇyaka and not the third Adhyâya. तृतीयोध्यायः appears to be a mistake for तृतीयमारण्यकम्, as these few lines could hardly be regarded as "a short additional Adhyâya", as Dr. Bühler seems to think. Of the S'anti given above the portion ending with शरदः शतम् forms a part of the शान्ति at the end of the ऐतरेयारण्यक (Ânandâs'rama Sk. Series), and the rest as the शांति introductory to the ऐतरेयोपनिषद् (Ânan. Sk. Series.)

Colophon.—इति श्री ऋग्वेदे शाकलके शाखायां दशममण्डले ऋग्वेदः खिलसहितस्संहितारण्यसहितश्च सम्पूर्णस्समाप्तम्। ॐ नमो ब्रह्मणे नमो अस्त्वग्नये नमः पृथिव्यै नम ओषधीभ्यः। नमो वाचे नमो वाचस्पतये नमो विष्णवे बृहते कृणोमीत्येतासामेव देवतानां साक्षितां सायुज्यं सलोकतामाप्नोति य एवं विद्वाँ स्वाध्यायमधीते।

No. 8. 19. / A. 1882-83.

Size.—10⅜ in. by 4⅝ in.

Extent.—139 leaves, 8 lines to a page, 28 letters to a line.

Description.—Country rough paper; Devanâgarî characters, clear legible and fairly correct; accents marked in red ink, complete This Ms. contains only some select hymns from all the Ashṭakas, each Adhyâya of each Ashṭaka being represented by one or more hymns. In some cases only the first ṛik of a hymn is given. The principle of selection does not appear to be obvious especially as there are some lacunæ in the last two pages. The mode of accentuation adopted on the first page suggests some special sacrificial purpose, as e. g., in No. 4 of 1871-72.

Age.—Appears to be a new copy.

Begins—॥ श्रीगणेशाय नमः ॥ ॐ.

Ends—प्रदिशो नदि द्विशो न आपो विश्वतः परिपांतु सर्वतः ॥ शांतिः शांतिः शांतिः ॥ इति मंत्रसंहिता समाप्ता ॥

The distinguishing feature of the Ms. is that in the first page the accent mark of the Svarita-tone does not appear as a perpendicular stroke over the head of a letter as usual, but as a horizontal side stroke after the letter, as in the Saṁhitâs of the White Yajurveda and the Atharvaveda.

This is a work on expiating the sins incurred in wrongly reciting the Mantras of the Ṛigveda Saṁhitâ, Its author is supposed to be Vṛiddha Śaunaka or Śaunaka. This work should really be called लघुऋग्विधान.

Reference.—Calcutta Sanskrit College Catalogue, Vol. I, Nos. 32 and 34. Also the Madras Government Oriental Mss. Library Catalogue, Vol. II, No. 884.

ऋग्विधान(कारिका). Ṛigvidhâna(kârikâ.)

No. 51. 70. / 1884—87.

Size.—11⅓ in. by 4⅜ in.

Description.—Country paper, Devanâgarî characters; bold, legible and fairly correct handwriting; complete; is apparently the same work as the last.

Age.—Seems to be a new copy.

Author.—Śaunaka.

Regarding the title of this work and the three before it, it seems that the name बृहदृग्विधानं is to be restricted to such as give the ऋषि, छंदस्, देवता and माहात्म्य of each of the Sûktas of the 8 Ashṭakas in order. (Cp. No. 884 of Madras Oriental Library Catalogue.) None of our Mss. give this, although their extent is about 840 verses, as of No. 1519 of Râj. Mitra's Notices, Vol. IV. There is another work bearing this same title and not represented in our collection which begins with स्वयंभुवे ब्रह्मणे विश्वगोप्त्रे, &c. and differs from the works under consideration in style and subject-matter. Cp. No. 31 of Calcutta Sanskrit College Catalogue; Râj. Mitra's Notices, Vol. IV. p. 111.

ऋग्वेदप्रातिशाख्य. Ṛigvedaprâtis'âkhya.

No. 52. 9. / 1879-80.

Size.—9½ in. by 4¼ in.

Extent.—46 leaves, 7 lines to a page, 32 letters to a line.

Description.—Country paper, Devanâgarî characters; bold, legible and mostly correct handwriting. The handwriting is sometimes characterised by पृष्ठमात्रा. Red chalk is used profusely to mark out important places. Accent marks are shown in some places in red ink, but they are wrongly given at folio 4*a* and in other places. Folio 33 is wanting. With this exception the Ms. is complete.

Age.—Saṁvat 1574.

Author.—Śaunaka or rather pupils of Śaunaka.

Subject.—Vedic grammar and orthography peculiar to the Ṛigveda.

No. 55. $\frac{4.}{1875\text{-}76.}$

Size.—14 in. by 6 in.

Extent.—14 leaves, 11 lines to a page, 48 letters to a line.

Description.—Modern country paper, Devanâgarî characters of the Kâśmîrian type; bold, legible and fairly correct. The Ms. is incomplete. Stops are very sparingly used.

Age.—New copy.

Author.—Vishṇumitra, son of Devamitra of the Vatsa kula (gotra) of the Bahvṛichas. At the end of the first Paṭala, the bhâshya is called Pârshadavyâkhyâ* which is generally ascribed to Uvaṭa. (See No. IV P. 1. Burnell's Classified Index of Mss., Part I.) Pârshadavyâkhyâ is however the name of Uvaṭa's commentary, and Vishṇumitra seems to have written only a gloss on it. Cf. the palm leaf Ms. called Rikprâtiśâkhyavṛittivyâkhyâ, No. 883 of Government Oriental Mss. Library Catalogue, Madras.

* Two other Mss. (Nos. 51 and 52 of 1869-70) of this work, unfortunately omitted here, are noticed in Section VI. Both are called पार्षदव्याख्या.

* The Aitareyopanishad (see No. 71 above) is commonly taken to form Adhyâyas IV—VII of the second Âraṇyaka. It would seem, however, that according to another view the Upanishad begins with the first Adhyâya of the second Âraṇyaka. The second and third Âraṇyakas also go by the names of Saṁhitopanishad or Bahvṛichabrâhmaṇopanishad, see Madras Government Or. Library Catalogue No. 326. For Upanishad Mss. see Section VII.

No. 82. $\frac{1.}{1879–80.}$

Size.—The Ms. is in two parts, one measuring 10 in. by 4½ in.; the other, 9½ in. by 4½ in.

Extent.—{ Part I, 70 leaves, 8 lines to a page, 40 letters to a line.

Description.—The Ms. being very old the borders of the leaves have been much damaged. The first part is older still, much more damaged at the corners. This part consists of old thin country paper of brownish tint. Devanâgarî characters with पृष्ठमात्रा. The handwriting is bold, careful, elegant and correct. Red powder is sparingly used to mark the ends of the Adhyâyas and their sub-divisions, but it seems to have been rubbed off by use and age. Yellow pigment also used in some places for correction. The first part brings down the subject to the end of the 15th Adhyâya.

The second part is not so good as the first. The paper is a little thicker than that of the first. The character is Devanâgari without पृष्ठमात्रा; but the handwriting is not good. It is legible, carefully written and correct. The second part begins with the 16th Adhyâya and ends with the 30th and the last Adhyâya. There is a difference of about 140 years in the age of the two parts. Both the parts taken together complete the work.

Age.—{ Part I, Saṁvat 1567.

The No. is scratched by a later hand in the case of Adhyâyas up to 10th, while it is not so scratched from 11th onwards.

Adhyâya V, in 8 sections.

Begins—प्रतर्दनो ह वै दैवोदासिरिंद्रस्य प्रियं धामोपजगाम &c.

Begins—ऋचां मूर्धानं यजुषामुत्तमांगं &c.

Ends—नाकमेति ज्ञानं(न)विधूतपाप्मेति ॥ इत्यारण्यके चतुर्दशोध्यायः ॥ These two sections are often combined into one and thus constitute the 2nd or the 2nd and 3rd sections of 13th Adhyâya. No. 95 however calls the 13th and 14th Adhyâyas of the present Ms. together as Adhyâya 14th, while the 13th is altogether omitted in the enumeration.

Adhyâya XV. This consists of the वंश or succession list of teachers.

Begins—अथ वंशः ॥ नमो ब्रह्मणे नम आचार्येभ्यो गुणाख्याच्छांखायनादस्माभिरधीतं गुणाख्यः शांखायनः । &c.

Ends—देवरातो विश्वामित्राद्विश्वामित्र इंद्रादिंद्रः प्रजापतेः प्रजापतिर्ब्रह्मणो ब्रह्मा स्वयंभूर्नमो ब्रह्मणे नमो ब्रह्मणे ॥१९॥ इत्यारण्यके पंचदशोध्यायः ॥ स्वस्ति श्री संवत १७१४ वर्षे आश्विन वादि १ शुक्रे दीक्षत भाईआसुत दीक्षत विश्वनाथपठनार्थं सहि शुभं भवतु ॥ ॥ यादृशं &c. ॥ लिषितं नानाजी ॥ This वंश chapter usually forms the concluding section of the 13th Adhyâya. In No. 90 however it forms merely a supplement; while No. 95 has इति सप्तदशोध्यायः, which is clearly a mistake, since the preceding Adhyâya is called the 14th.

Age.—Saṁvat 1799. This seems to be the year of the substitution of the last leaf which is written by a later hand. The Ms. as a whole seems to be much more old. Its antiquity is also borne out by the fact that the writing is characterised by a पृष्ठमात्रा which is not the case with respect to the pages that are newly substituted, namely, Folios 15-17, 60-64 and 68, all being written in a modern careless hand.

(i. e. Âraṇyârchika and

No. 116.

70.
1886-92.

Size.—7 in. by $4\frac{7}{8}$ in.

Extent.—9 leaves, 8 lines to a page, 20 letters to a line.

Description.—Country paper ; Devanâgarî characters with पृष्ठमात्राs ; bold, clear and correct handwriting ; borders ruled in double black lines ; red chalk used ; accents marked in black figures ; ends much worn out ; complete.

Age.—Saṁvat 1652.

Subject.—Âraṇîsaṁhitâ is a name given in common to Âraṇyârchika and Mahânâmnî. The Âraṇyarchika (otherwise called आरण्य(क)संहिता) forms the seventh प्रपाठक of the पूर्वार्चिक in the नैगेयशाखा of the Sâmaveda, and is called forest portion because it was to be recited in the forests. The Mahânâmnî, which covers the last 2 folios of this Ms., is a body of hymns forming the last part of the पूर्वार्चिक (though some consider it to be a distinct work) and coming after the Âraṇyaka portion. The present Ms. was inaccurately called महानाम्नी in Dr. Peterson's report for 1886-92.

Begins—॥ ॐ नमः । श्रीसामवेदाय ॥ ॐ इंद्र ज्येष्ठं न आभर ओजिष्ठं पुपुरि श्रवः । यद्दिधक्षेम वज्रहस्त रोदसी उभे सुशिप्रपप्राः ॥ १ ॥

The आरण्यार्चिक proper ends with the words—सप्त त्वा हरितो रथे वहंति देव सूर्य । शोचिष्केशं विचक्षण ॥ १४ ॥ दशति ६ ॥

The महानाम्ना commences, fol. 7*b*, last line—विदा मघवन्विदा गातु मनुशंसिषो दिशः । &c.

Ends— एवाहींद्र ॥ एवाहि पूषन् ॥ एवाहिदेवाः ॥ १० । दशति ६ ॥ इति श्री महानाम्नि संहिता समाप्तः ॥

Size.—10 in. by 4 in.

Extent.—79 leaves, 6 lines to a page, 24 letters to a line.

Description.—Country thick paper; Devanâgarî characters with पृष्ठमात्राs; bold legible and correct handwriting; accent marks given in red ink, and sometimes in black ink, in figures 1, 2, 3 and र; and tone marks given in figures 2, 3, 4, 5 written after the letters throughout the Ms.; red chalk used to mark important places; folio 65 written on one side only; the work is divided into six प्रपाठकs, the last 2 folios being taken up by the महानाम्नी; in the previous catalogues this Ms. was inaccurately called महानाम्नी; complete.

Age.—Saṁvat 1648.

Subject.—The Gânas are collections of hymns arranged in a particular way and set to music, the regular Saṁhitâ text being inflated by the infusion of many musical particles and syllables. There are many of these Gânas of which the Geya-(veya)gânas and Âraṇyagânas claim a great antiquity. The bases for all the Gânas are the hymns occurring in the पूर्वार्चिक, the उत्तरार्चिक and the आरणी संहिता, although some hymns not elsewhere found are also occasionally met with.

The महानाम्नी which is a very small chapter (an अर्ध प्रपाठक) is usually supposed to form the concluding portion of the आरण्यगान and consists of the hymns given in the last part of the आरणी संहिता (see No. 116 above) inflated and set to music.

In the Sâmans of the Uttarârchika three verses are usually grouped together to form one ṛik, the first verse being taken as a general rule from the पूर्वार्चिक. The ऊहसामs take their first verses from the आग्नेय, ऐंद्र, and पवमान sections of the पूर्वार्चिक, while the ऊह्यसामs, take them from the remaining sections. The regular संहिता is turned into गान by the addition of musical particles, स्वर marks and other hints for chanting.

The Ms. comes from Vadanagar.

Age.—Saṁvat 1272. The date is given at the end of the Ms. in the ordinary hand but the figures being indistinct, a different hand has, it seems, traced his pen over those worn out figures in deep black ink and has brought out the figure 1272 and has written out this date again on a strip of paper pasted over the leaf at the bottom of the page. The major part of the Ms. however does not seem to be so very old.

Description.—Old country paper; Devanâgarî characters with पृष्ठमात्राs; bold, legible and correct writing. The writing on the last few leaves has become a little indistinct. Pages 39—45 (with fol. 44 missing), 154—168, 205—214 have been newly substituted by a different hand. There is a break from page 214 to page 243, but it has been filled up by pages from 224 to 251 shorter in size and written by a different hand and apparently belonging to another Ms. The matter on folio 214 is repeated on folio 224 of the substituted portion, the real addition commencing from the first line on b. side of page 224. Page 251 brings the subject as far as the end of the first section of the 24th Prapâṭhaka, and two lines more of the second section. After this the paging of the old Ms. begins, the first page of which, i. e. 243rd, introduces the subject at the beginning of the third section and the last two lines of the second section of the 24th Prapâṭhaka. So, on the whole, there is a lacuna of nearly one section. The Ms. is thus almost complete. It was purchased at Surat.

Age.—No date is given at the end, but the Ms. seems to be very old. Some careless writing on the side of the first leaf discloses the fact that the Ms. seems to have changed hands in Saṁvat 1762 and again on the 5th day of the bright half of Âśvîna, Saṁvat 1763.

Subject.—The Brâhmaṇa is extant in two recensions, the Kauthuma and the Jaiminîya or Talavakâra. The first is edited with extracts from Sâyaṇa's commentary by Dr. Burnell (1876) and with the entire commentary in the Bibliotheca Indica Series. The second recension, which was discovered by Dr. Burnell, has been edited by the same scholar and published at Mangalore, 1878. The Brâhmaṇa derives its name from the fact that it gives notices of Ṛishis of the Sâmaveda.

वंशब्राह्मणः देवताध्यायसांहितोपनिषत्सहितः Vaṁśabrâhmaṇa, including the Devatâdhyâya and the Saṁhitopanishad.

No. 172. 82. / 1879-80.

Size.—9½ in. by 5⅜ in.

Extent.—11 leaves, 8 lines to a page, 28 letters to a line.

Description.—Country paper; Devanâgarî characters; bold, legible and fairly correct handwriting; complete.

Age.—Seems to be a new copy.

Subject.—The Ms. comprises three Adhyâyas—(1) Devatâdhyâya; (2) Saṁhitopanishad; (3) Vaṁśa. Each of these is regarded as a distinct Brâhmaṇa and is so commented upon by Sâyaṇa (cf. No. 66 of Madras Or. Government Library Catalogue, Vol. I, part II).

The Devatâdhyâya contains the names of the deities presiding over the different portions of the Sâmaveda. It is called Devatâdhyâyabrâhmaṇa or Agnibrâhmaṇa from its first word. According to Sâyaṇa the Saṁhitopanishad, although properly a Brâhmaṇa, is called (Saṁhitâ-) Upanishad because it deals with the usual subject of the Upanishads proper. The third part of the Ms. contains the Vaṁśa Brâhmaṇa proper. It gives the line of teachers through whom the Sâmaveda has been handed down from antiquity. Properly speaking the Vaṁśa Brâhmaṇa consists of two paṭalas, the first of which mentions the names in order of the deities, manes, सामगाचार्यs and प्रवर्त्तकाचार्यs to whom तर्पणs are due. The पटल begins with the words—देवान्यथापूर्वं तर्पयिष्यामः । अग्निस्तृप्यतु. The second पटल gives the Vaṁśa proper and is alone given in this Ms. Nor does Sâyaṇa comment upon the पटल, probably because it was too easy.

Begins—(देवताध्याय) ॐ नमः सामवेदाय नमः ॥ अग्निरिंद्रः प्रजापतिः सोमो वरुणस्त्वष्टांगिरसः पूषा सरस्वतींद्राग्नी इडानि धनानि पदानिधनानि कारणि धनानीत्याग्नेयानि सर्वाणि निधवंश्चैंद्राण्यन्यान्यादिष्टेभ्यः सर्वाणि स्वाराणि प्राजापत्यानि &c.

End of the same.—स खलु एनं प्रजापतिर्वा इदमेकमह्नः क्षितयः पुरुषो वात्रमीश्वरोभिजायते नाकाशीकरणं च चतुर्ऋचो भवति य एवं वेद य एवं वेद ॥ ९ ॥ इति संहितोपनिषत्समाप्तः ॥

The वंश section begins with—नमो ब्रह्मणे नमो ब्राह्मणेभ्यो नम आचार्येभ्यो नम ऋषिभ्यो &c.

End of the same.—यमराधाच्च गोभिलात्पूषमित्राद्गोभिलात्पूषामित्रो गोभिलोऽश्वमित्राद्गोभिलादश्वमित्रो गोभिलो वरुणमित्राद्गोभिलाद्वरुणमित्रो गोभिलो मूलमित्राद्गोभिलान्मूलमित्रो गोभिलो वत्समित्राद्गोभिलाद्वत्समित्रा गोभिलो गौल्गुल्वीपुत्राद्गोभिलाद्गौल्गुलवीपुत्रो गोभिलो बृहद्वसोः पितुर्बृहद्वसुर्गोभिलो गोभिलादेव गोभिलो राधाच्च गौतमात्समानं परꣳ समानं परं ॥ ३ ॥ ॥ इति वꣳशब्रा(ह्म)ण समाप्तः ॥

Reference.—The देवताध्याय has been edited with Sâyaṇa's commentary by Dr. Burnell (1873). The वंशब्राह्मण proper has been edited and translated by Weber in Indische Studien and published with Sâyaṇa's commentary by Dr. Burnell. The succession of teachers given in this Brâhmaṇa is stated at length on pages 119 ff of Madras Govt. Or. Library Catalogue, Vol. I, part 2. Dr. Burnell has also edited the संहितोपनिषद्ब्राह्मण with a commentary in 1877.

III. a.—BLACK YAJURVEDA.

Maitrâyaṇîyasaṁhitâ, Kâṇḍa I.

No. 182.

18*a*.
1879-80.

Size.—10¼ in. by 4½ in.

Description.—Old country paper; Devanâgarî characters with पृष्ठमात्राs; bold, generally legible and fairly correct hand writing. The borders of most of the leaves much worn out, and in many places secured by straps of paper pasted over them. The first four leaves, leaves Nos. 75 and 76, and the last leaf have been newly supplied in a different hand. The letters of the Ms. have been effaced in many places, and consequently the text has become illegible here and there. The accent marks are given faintly in red ink; and red chalk is often used for marking. The mode of indicating accents seems to be peculiar to this Śâkhâ and is quite different from that of the Ṛigveda. In the Maitrâyaṇîya Śâkhâ, the Udâtta is marked by a perpendicular stroke over the letter, while in the Ṛigveda it is altogether unmarked; the svarita is marked by a horizontal stroke in the middle of the letter in the former,* while it is marked by a perpendicular stroke over a letter in the latter. The anudâtta is marked in the same way in both. Some letters are marked with three perpendicular strokes over their heads, and others are marked by a peculiar horizontal stroke slightly curved inside on the left, e. g., त्रिष्ण वे त्र्यक्षराय छंदसे स्वा हा । सोमा-य चतु-राक्षराय &c. The Ms. gives all the 11 prapâṭhakas of the first kâṇḍa.

Age.—The Ms. seems to be very old.

Subject.—The maitrâyaṇîya is one of the older Śâkhâs of the Black Yajurveda, and was formerly called the Kâlâpa. It consists of four kâṇḍas, sub-divided into fifty-four prapâṭhakas, of which the first kâṇḍa contains eleven. The fourth kâṇḍa is often regarded as a Khilakâṇḍa.

* This stroke across the letter is shown in printing as a dash after it.

Begins—श्री गणेशाय नमः ॥ ॐ गुरुभ्यो नमः ॥ ॐ परमगुरुभ्यो नमः ॥ ॐ नमो यजुर्वेदाय ॥ ॐ भूः तत्सवितुर्वरेण्यं । ॐ भुवः भर्गोदेवस्य धि (धी) महि । ॐ स्वः धियो यो नः प्रचोदयात् ॥ ॐ भूर्भुवः स्वः ॐ तत्सवितुर्वरेण्यं भर्गो देवस्य धि (धी) महि । धि यो योनः प्रचोदयात् । ॐ भूर्भुवः स्वः तत्सवि० । दयात् ॥ ॐ इषे त्वा- सुभूताय वा यव-स्थ देवोवः सविता प्रार्पयतु श्रेष्ठतमाय &c.

Ends—रुद्रेभ्यश्चतुर्दशाक्षराय छंदसे स्वाहा । दिग्भ्यः पंच-दशाक्षराय । छंदसे स्वाहाऽदि-त्यैषोड-शाक्षराय छंदसे स्वाहा-प्रजापतिः सप्तदशः ॥ १० ॥ प्रथमकांडे नैकादशमः प्रपाठकः ॥ लिखि (तं) शुक्ल डोशा वि. पुंजा श्री मोरबीमध्ये ॥ श्री ॥

Reference.—The text of the maitrâyaṇîya saṁhitâ has been edited with a German introduction by Professor Schroeder.

No. 183. 18*b*. / 1879-80.

Size.—8½ in. by 4½ in.

Extent.—84 leaves, 13 lines to a page, 24 letters to a line.

Description.—Old country paper; Devanâgarî characters with पृष्ठमात्रा; bold, legible and fairly correct handwriting. The borders of the Ms. have been much worn out, especially of the first few leaves. The method of marking the accents is the same as that of No. 182. Red chalk is used here and there. Incomplete.

Age.—The Ms. seems to be very old.

Ends—Leaf No. 83*b* last three lines—यस्याहिताग्नेः सश्चत्तोग्निर्गृहां दहेद्‌-ग्निर्वा एतस्य क्षामो गृहानभ्युच्यति स दहत्येवापरं॰ यदग्नये क्षामवते ये वास्य क्षामा प्रिया तनूस्तामेवास्य भागधेयेन शमयत्यदाहु कोस्यापर—

Here ends leaf No. 83. This comes almost to the end of the 9th section of the 8th prapâṭhaka. Leaf No. 84, which is put at the end, does not seem to be in continuation of leaf No. 83. It looks like a leaf of some other Ms., as its paper is quite different. The last 7 leaves of the Ms. are devoid of accent marks.

Size.—10⅛ in. by 4½ in.

Extent.—49 leaves, 8 lines to a page, 27 letters to a line.

Description.—Country paper; Devanâgarî characters with पृष्ठमात्रा; bold, legible and fairly correct handwriting; borders ruled and accents marked in red ink to the end of folio 38. Contains only the first four prapâṭhakas of the first kâṇḍa.

मैत्रायणीय संहिता, Maitrâyaṇîyasaṁhitâ,
द्वितीय काण्ड. Kâṇḍa II.

No. 186. 18c. / 1879-80.

Size.—11 in. by $4\frac{3}{4}$ in.

Extent.—91 leaves, 10 lines to a page, 34 letters to a line.

Description.—Old country paper; Devanâgarî characters; bold, legible and correct handwriting. Leaf No. 11 is numbered twice, and leaves 22 and 23 are wanting. The method of marking accents is the same as that of No. 182. Red chalk is used here and there. The first two and the last leaves are much worn out. Contains the 2nd kâṇḍa only. Complete in 13 प्रपाठकs.

Begins—॥ ६० ॥ ॐ नमो गणेशाय ॥ ऐंद्राग्नमेकाऽदशकपालं निर्वपेत् यस्य-स जातावी याआयुरोजोवै वीर्यमिंद्राग्नी &c.

Ends—कस्मै-देवाय हविषा-विधेम । आ नः प्रकांडे नयतुः प्रजापति-र्धातादधातु सु........ । सम्वत्सर ऋतुभिः संविदा नो मयी पुष्टिं पुष्टिपतिर्दधातु ॥ २३ ॥ द्वितीयकाण्डे........चतुर्दशः (!) प्रपाठकः ॥ श्रीः ॥ श्रीः ॥ श्रीमदणहिल्लपुरपत्तनवासिना द्विवेदी जगन्नाथ........पठनार्थं लिखापितमिदं द्वितीयकाण्डं ॥

The mention of a 14th प्रपाठक is clearly an error in counting. The 9th प्रपाठक is counted correctly and thence the Ms. mentions the end of त्रयोदशप्रपाठक on folio 85*a*, where we should expect the end of the 12th. The प्रपाठकs 10, 11 and 12 are not numbered at all.

Description.—Old country paper; Devanâgarî characters; bold, legible and fairly correct handwriting; red chalk used here and there; accent marks similar to those of No. 182; first few pages are much worn out and blackened. Leaf No. 85 is wanting, and leaf No. 104 which is now placed at the end is superfluous. Leaves Nos. 2, 4, 6, 13, 18, 30, 42, 46, 47, 71, 75, 80, 89, 91, 92, 93, 102, 105, 108, and 112 are newly supplied in a different hand, and are without accent marks except leaf No. 2. No. 188.

Size.—$11\frac{1}{4}$ in. by $5\frac{3}{8}$ in.

Extent.—202 leaves, 10 lines to a page, 36 letters to a line.

Description.—Modern country paper, white, thick and tough; Devanâgarî characters; bold, legible, careful, beautiful and correct handwriting, with borders doubly ruled in red ink. The beginnings and endings of Kâṇḍas and Adhyâyas are written in red ink. Accents are marked also in red ink, and the method of marking them here mostly resembles that of the Ṛigveda. The Ms. is complete in 4 Kâṇḍas, but apparenty contains some lacunæ, and some recurring forms of abbreviation. The पदपाठ further extends only to the mantras; and hence its division into Kâṇḍas and Adhyâyas does not follow the normal division of the मैत्रायणीय संहिता. The first leaf of Kâṇḍa III is wanting and leaf No. 26 of the same is repeated twice. The paging of the Ms. is given separately for the first two Kâṇḍas, while the last two are paged together.

This is the Ms. marked 6) in Dr. Schroeder's edition, where he says that the Ms. is a copy of an old Ms. in Morbi, vide the "Einleitung p. xxxvi to Book 1," for further particulars.

Kâṇḍa I, leaves 1-50. Kâṇḍa II, leaves 1-61.

Kâṇḍa III and Kâṇḍa IV, leaves 2-91, with folio 26 counted twice. The 3rd Kâṇḍa ends on folio 51*a*.

Age.—Saṁvat 1936.

Subject.—Padas of the Maitrâyaṇîya Śâkha of the Kṛishṇa Yajurveda.

Description.—The Ms. is a curious mixture of three different portions dovetailed into each other. The "major partion" of the Ms. seems to be old enough; it is on country paper and in Devanâgarî characters. The other two portions are also on country paper and in Devanâgari, one of which seems to be "nearly as old" as the major portion, but the other is "recent" (1) The "major portion" consists of 120 folios—1—8, 12—25, 27—66, 73—130; (2) the portion which is "nearly as old" as the above consists of 8 folios—26th, 67—73; (3) the "recent" portion consists of 7 folios—9—12; 26th; and 131—132; so that the numbers 12, 26, and 73 are repeated twice over.

Age.—There is no clue to finding the date of the "major portion"; but the date of the other two portions can be determined. On the back of folio 70, which belongs to the second portion, are scribbled the following words :—

दृष्ट्वा नवयौवना ।......कस्य नो चक्लिते मनः and an answer is supplied तस्य नो चलिते मनः ॥ The date of this portin is also scribbled :—"संवत् १६८० वर्षे फाल्गुन सूदि ११ दिने......" The date of the third portion is given on folio 132 :—"अद्येह गोलावालज्ञातिय दवेदेवदत्तजीसुतदवेरांमजीसुतशंभुदत्तसु० शंकरदत्तनां नजीरि पोथी संवत् १८३२."

शतपथब्राह्मण (काण्वशाखा). — Śatapathabrâhmaṇa (Kâṇva recension).

No. 333. — 46. / 1887—91.

Size.—9¾ in. by 4¼ in.

Extent.—355 leaves, 10 lines to a page, 30 letters to a line.

Description.—Country paper; Devanâgarî characters with पृष्ठमात्राs; clear, legible but extremely incorrect writing; borders ruled irregularly in double black lines; accents marked in red ink; leaves 1, 3, 4, 6—8, 12—15, 40, 43—73, 324, 349 are wanting; leaf 369 is numbered twice. The margins of some of the leaves in the body of the Ms. are eaten up The Ms. is incomplete and fragmentary. It opens with I. 1. 1. 13, Kâṇḍa I ending at folio 42*b*. Kâṇḍa II is entirely absent, folio 74 commencing with III. 1. 2. 4. Kâṇḍa III ends at folio 112*a*. Kâṇḍa IV exists entire and covers folios 113—146*a*, as also Kâṇḍa V, ending at folio 169*a*. The sixth Kâṇḍa ends at folio 196*a*, and the seventh at folio 219, both being complete. Kâṇḍa VIII ends at folio 246*a*, Kâṇḍa IX at folio 267*b*, Kâṇḍa X at folio 288*a*, Kâṇḍa XI at folio 320*a*, Kâṇḍa XII at folio 339*b*, and Kâṇḍa XIII at folio 369*b*, all being complete. Kâṇḍa XIV, unlike the माध्यंदिन recension, here consists of seven प्रपाठकs, the first beginning with देवा ह वै सत्रं निषेदुः । and the second beginning with स यत्रैता ॰ being new to the Kâṇvas. The Ms. breaks off towards the close of the seven प्रपाठक.

A peculiarity of this Ms. is that it never gives the whole text entire; only the first letter or two and the last letter are indicated and the rest have to be supplied from memory. This is therfore eminently a students' Ms.

Age.—Appears to be an old Ms.

Begins.—Leaf 2*a* :—१३ । यद्वेद्यस्तं । तत्प्राप्नोति । १४ । यद्वेत्र । होता वा । ब्रह्मा वा । अग्ना वा । स्वयं यतेतेदेस्तंाति । १५ । यद्वेति । हेवान् । तानक्षुः । नयाति । तद्यासि । १६ ।

Ends —Leaf No. 398*b*, last two lines :— आलंब्रीबात् । आलंबाजात् । जायंमांकात् । मांडूकाकीत् । मांडूशात् । शांडिरात् । साथी । क्रौंभ्यां । क्रौंचिबैत् । वैद्भात् । भालुप्रात् । प्राचीसांत् । सां जी । Here ends the Ms. abruptly.

शतपथब्राह्मण (प्रकीर्णकंडिकाः). Śatapathabrâhmaṇa (Miscellaneous Kaṇḍikâs).

No. 336. 22./1882-83.

Size.—$8\frac{7}{8}$ in. by $3\frac{3}{4}$ in.

Extent.—72 leaves, 8 lines to a page, 25 letters to a line.

Description.—Country paper; Devanâgarî characters with पृष्ठमात्राs; bold, legible and fairly correct handwriting; borders ruled in double black lines; accents and periods marked in red ink throughout; red chalk used; most of the leaves worn out; leaves 36—47, 68-69, 73—77, 79—89 wanting: incomplete and fragmentary. The Ms. consists of a number of Kandikas selected for some specific purpose out of the Śatapatha, Kâṇḍa by Kâṇḍa. Thus the first, स वै सत्यमेव वदेत् । with which the Ms. opens is I. 1. 1. 5; the next is I. 5. 2. 15, and so on. The selection ends with XIV. 2. 1. 15, after which we have (folio 65*a*) इति चतुर्दशं कांडं ॥ शेषवाणा मंत्र संपूर्णः ॥ श्रीः ॥

This is followed by a second collection beginning with I. 1. 2. 12 This is a comparatively shorter collection and is incomplete, breaking off in the middle of a कंडिका from the 13th कांड, (XIII. 1. 9. 8) सभेयो युवे त्यंषवे &c.

Age.—Seems to be an old copy.

शतपथब्राह्मणप्रकरणानि. Śatapathabrâhmaṇaprakaraṇa

No. 337. 356./1883-84.

Description.—This is a very curious Ms. consisting of some nine groups of leaves of different sizes and made up of different kinds of paper. The characters are Devanâgarî throughout, but the handwriting is different in different portions. Accents are marked and borders ruled in red ink in all the portions except one.

This last is new in appearance and contains the first 2 ब्राह्मणs and a portion of the next of the first प्रपाठक of Kâṇḍa I. This covers folios 1—12. The next in order come 35 leaves (folios 2—36) rather old looking which commence with 1. I. 1. 3 and go as far down as the end of the 4th ब्राह्मण of the first प्रपाठक and a few कंडिकाs of the next, of the same Kâṇḍa. The remaining portions are very small, all together making up some 30 leaves. The oldest looking of these (folios 1—6) ends thus :—सकृदाछिन्न न्यभा दधाति पुनरुन्मुक्रमापि सृजाति ॥ २४ ॥ ब्राह्मणं समाप्तं ॥ इदं प्रजापतिं संपूर्णं ॥ तदु होवाच कहोड॰ कौषीतकिः ॥ शके १७२१ सिद्धार्थि नाम संवछरे ज्येष्ठशुद्ध १ प्रतिपदा भौमवासरे तद्दिने इदं पुस्तकं संपूर्णं ॥ गणेशार्पणमस्तु ॥ The next in age is a small portion of 9 leaves containing what is called सयः ब्राह्मण. It ends thus :—पिष्ट्वा दध्ना मधुना घृतेनोपसिंचत्याज्यस्य जुहोति ॥ २२ ॥ ब्राह्मणं ॥ शके १७२६ रक्ताक्षि नामाब्दे जेष्ठवद्य ११ भौम्यवासरे तद्दिने समाप्तः ॥ Of the rest one is a portion of the साचीकांड, प्रपाठक I; another contains the भूमिरंतरिक्ष ब्राह्मण from कांड XIV; the third contains some portion of the अश्वमेधकांड, and the rest are loose leaves from somewhere. The whole hardly deserves to be called a manuscript.

अथर्ववेदसंहिता (काड १–२०).

Atharvavedasaṁhitâ (Kâṇḍas 1—20).

No. 370.

327. / 1883-84.

Description.—The Ms. consists of two parts. The first part comprises the first 10 kâṇḍas and is made up of foreign bluish foolscap paper of uniform size. The second part contains the last 10 kâṇḍas except the 13th kâṇḍa and consists of different kinds of paper, country as well as foreign, and the different kâṇḍas have different sizes of paper. The last, i. e. the 20th kâṇḍa, has two copies, the first of which is complete and the second incomplete. The characters are Devanâgarî throughout. The handwriting of the first 10 kâṇḍas and of the 17th, 19th and the 20th kâṇḍas is beautiful, exceptionally clear, uniform and correct, and that of the rest of the kâṇḍas is rather irregular, but bold and fairly correct. Accents are marked in red ink; and borders similarly ruled throughout, except kâṇḍas 14—16. Red chalk is much used in the second part, and yellow pigment for correction in the first part.

The sizes of leaves and the extent of the different kâṇḍas are as under:—

It is complete. Folios 5—8 and the last two have their borders secured by pasting pieces of red paper over them.

This is the same as No. 39 of 1891—95.

रुद्रषडङ्गपाठ. Rudrashaḍaṅgapâṭha.

No. 526. 79. / 1886—92.

Size.—$9\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $4\frac{7}{8}$ in.

Extent.—14 leaves, 10 lines to a page, 26 letters to a line.

Description.—Country paper; Devanâgarî characters; clear, legible and fairly correct; borders ruled irregularly in double black lines; ends of the margin on all sides much worn out; and the margin on the upper left hand corner of all the leaves eaten up so as to lose some of the writing on them; complete.

The pâṭha consists of 6 members in 6 adhyâyas, viz.—

(1) Gaṇapatisûkta,

(2) Purushasûkta,

(3) The third adhyâya begins with आशुः शिशानो वृषभो न भीमो &c.

(4) The fourth adhyâya begins with ॐ भूर्भुवः स्वः ॥ विभ्राड् बृहत् । पिबतु सोम्यं मध्वायुर्दधद्यज्ञपतावविह्रुतम् ॥ and contains the उदुत्यं, that is, the praise of the sun.

(5) Rudra.

(6) Rudrajapa.

The first five Adhyâyas of this Ms. are exactly the same as those of No. 39 of 1891—95, for which see above.

Age.—Seems to be an old Ms.

Ends—Folio No. 15*a*—

रुद्राध्याय. Rudrâdhyâya.

No. 527. 33./1875-76.

Size.—8½ in. by 9¼ in.

Extent.—7 leaves, 24 lines to a page, 36 letters to a line.

Description.—It is an old Ms. of Birch bark leaves arranged in folios in the form of a modern book. The character is Śâradâ and the handwriting is legible, careful and fairly correct. The Ms. has four blank leaves in the beginning as well as in the end. Rudrâdhyâya which occupies 6 sides is followed by Brahmayajña which is tacked to it and is carried over four pages more. The Ms. is incomplete. It was purchased at Kashmir.

Age.—An old Ms.

Subject.—Mantras in praise of the deity Rudra, the ordinary रुद्रजप of the शुक्लयजुर्वेदिन्s without the वाजश्व अध्याय.

Begins—ओं स्वस्ति । ओं नमो ब्रह्मणे । ओं गणानां त्वा गणपति॰ हवामहे । प्रियानां (णां) त्वा प्रियपति॰ हवामहे । निधीनां त्वा निधिपति॰ हवामहे ।

Ends—द्यौः शान्तिरन्तरिक्ष॰शान्तिः पृथिवी शान्तिरापः शान्तिरोषधयः शान्तिर्वनस्पतयः शान्तिर्विश्वेदेवाः शान्तिर्ब्रह्म शान्तिः । सर्व॰शान्तिः शान्तिरेव शान्तिः सामा शान्तिरेधि ॥ विश्वानि देव * * श्रीवर्चस्वमायुष्यमारोग्यमाविदात्पवमानं महीयते । धान्यं धनं । पशुं पुत्रलाभं शतसंवत्सरं दीर्घमायुः * * * * इति षडङ्गपाठः समाप्तः

Thus it appears that the Rudrâdhyâya is complete; but the Brahmayajña which follows is incomplete. The Brahmayajña begins thus :—

ॐ स्वस्ति । ॐ नमो ब्रह्मणे । ॐ श्रीगणेशाय नमः । ॐ नमः सरस्वत्यै । ॐ नमो गुरवे । स्नानं सन्ध्या जपो होमः स्वाध्यायो देवतार्चनम् । नित्यमेतानि षड् विप्रैः कर्तव्यानीति निश्चयात् । पञ्छो भूस्तद्भुवो भर्गः सुवर्धिय इतीष्यते । अर्धर्चशो भूस्तद्भुवो धियः सुवस्तदन्यथा ॥ आदौ स्नानं सन्ध्या जपो होम इत्येते सुप्रसिद्धा एव । ततो गायत्रीपठनपूर्वकं स्वाध्यायलक्षणम् । ब्रह्मयज्ञेन कर्मणा सद्यो यक्ष्ये । वृष्टिरसि etc.

It ends thus :—

No. 528. 43. / 1891—95.

Size.—9 in. by $5\frac{1}{4}$ in.

Extent.—14 leaves, 11 lines to a page, 24 letters to a line.

Description.—Country paper; Devanâgarî characters; bold, legible and fairly correct; accents marked in red ink; borders secured by pasting strips of paper; folio 7 wanting; incomplete. This Ms. seems to contain the first five adhyâyâs of No. 39 of 1891—95, with a few alterations here and there, most probably, owing to the difference of Śâkhas. Thus the first three verses are different; the नमकाध्याय is word for word the same, and so on.

Age.—Saṁvat 1802. Śaka 1668.
